EXOTIC NURSERIES

E. LEJEUNE

Santa Barbara, Cal.

Front View of EXOTIC NURSERIES

Does your nurseryman take the best care of your plants before shipping?
The Exotic Nurseries do.

This balled plant having been submitted for three months to our curing system, shows how the roots developed through the sacking.

Before shipping, "Exotic Nurseries" balled plants are submitted for a few days to this beneficial process. This few days of curing, although not yet bringing the roots through the sacking, is most favorable to the successful growth of the plants.

Packing is done quite carefully at the "Exotic Nurseries." It is a point second to none, that the plants should reach you as they leave us. Many nurseries overlook this fact; but the "Exotic Nurseries" give it its full importance.
